Communication #2

Dear Parents,

I promised that I would keep you updated. Here are few clarifications and additional information.

1. Our minimal schedule for this Monday and Tuesday will start at 7:45 and end at 11:15 am on both days. Teachers will be receiving training on how to conduct v
2. No Cases in ASD: Although there are many rumors, as of right now there are no confirmed cases of COVID-19 in the ASD Community.
3. Please be assured that we are following directions given by Governor Herbert and the State Superintendent.
 - In the meantime, we are preparing teachers to provide digital learning as early as next week if needed.
 - We are working in partnership with the Utah County Health Department in making decisions.
 - Parents have the right to choose to keep their own children home. Schools will be flexible with excusing absences (No NC's). Teachers will work with students
4. Contact Information for Service Providers:

See the following for the name and email address for all of our ASD school nurses. They are available to answer questions from parents that have concerns. They ar
